(By Canadian Press)
OTTAWA, Sept. 15.—The Conservative government of H. H. Meighen met with defeat at the polls yesterday. The prime minister, himself failed to secure election in Portage La Prairie, Man., and five of his ministers, three of them from the province of Quebec, were defeated. On the other hand, the Liberal party, headed by H. H. Meighen, Mackenzie King, constitutes the largest group in the new parliament. Mr. King and all the members of the former government who contested ridings were returned by the electorate yesterday. Mr. King was elected in the constituency of Prince Albert, Sask.

MINISTERS DEFEATED
The members of the government, in addition to Premier Meighen, who were defeated yesterday are, Hon. E. L. Patterson, minister of justice; Hon. Andre Patenaude, solicitor-general; Hon. Eugene Paquet, minister of health and soldiers' re-establishment, and two ministers without portfolio, Hon. Donald Sutherland and Hon. Raymond Morand.
The former ministers in the King government in addition to H. H. Meighen, who were defeated yesterday are: Hon. Ernest Lapointe, former minister of justice; Hon. P. J. Carlini, former minister of marine; Hon. Lucien Caron, former solicitor-general; Hon. J. A. Robb, former minister of finance; Hon. J. C. Elliott, former minister of labor and soldiers' dev't re-establishment; Hon. W. R. Motherwell, former minister of agriculture; Hon. A. Dunning, former minister of railways; Hon. J. H. King, former minister of public works, and Hon. Chas. Stewart, former minister of the interior.

Speaker Re-elected
Hon. Mulock Lemieux, speaker of the last two parliaments, was re-elected in Gapeau, Que. In Quebec, P.E.I., Hon. J. E. Sinclair, former minister without portfolio in the King government, who was defeated in the general elections last year, was successful yesterday. Hon. James Mulock, a former minister of labor un-

Interest Shifts to Capital
(By Canadian Press)
TORONTO, Sept. 15.—After six weeks campaigning from coast to coast culminating in yesterday's battle of the polls, political interest shifts back today to the capital, to Parliament Hill, and perhaps to Rideau Hall itself.
The most definite thing that emerges from the smoke of conflict is that Premier Meighen has failed in his bid for popular support, and has lost what foothold he had in the last parliament as leader of the larger group, with 116 supporters—just seven short of a clear majority.

With all returns in, his following will be less than the round hundred. On the other hand, with three seats still unreported, two of which may go into the Liberal column, Mr. Mackenzie King, at an early hour this morning, had already reached Mr. Meighen's following of 116 of last session.
He can count assuredly on the support of Mr. Bourassa, Independent member for Labelle, but who has not during the late campaign lost an opportunity of attacking Mr. Meighen; he can also count with some certainty on the support of the three Labor members, A. J. Heaps, Winnipeg North, and Rev. J. S. Woodsworth, Winnipeg North Centre, who save him fairly consistent support last session as well as the new recruit, Labor ranks, H. B. Adshard, of "Baby East."

Presumed Support
In addition, there is the whole Progressive body about thirty members, offering Mr. King the presumably consistent support of the Liberal-Progressives, whose candidates were successfully endorsed by separate Progressive and Liberal nominations, and succeeded yesterday to the number of eleven. They include in the number Mr. F. P. Burke, recognized last session as the Progressive leader, whose influence with the party as a whole is likely to be thrown in, in support of Mr. King. It is not a secret that a year ago Mr. Burke was willing to enter a Liberal-Progressive coalition himself, taking the portfolio of agriculture.

Would Have Majority
Even, therefore, if Mr. King cannot rally to his support any of the seven "bright" Progressives among whom Miss Agnes McPhail gave him uniform consistent support almost throughout last session, or the eleven U.F.A. members from Alberta, he yet has in sight, Liberals, Labor, Independent, and Liberal-Progressives, a voting strength of about 130, giving him the

The Death of H. W. Wathen

The report of the autopsy which was held in connection with the death of the late W. H. Wathen, was that death was caused by Septic Endocarditis.
The remains were brought from Calgary and the interment took place at Strathmore last Friday, the funeral arrangements being in charge of Mr. C. W. Chase.
Among the floral offerings were the following: Spray from Mrs. H. W. Wathen and family. A wreath from Orange Valley School, Wreath from Strathmore C.P.W.A. Wreath from Mr. and Mrs. G. Bates, Floral Casket from Strathmore Cricket Club. Spray from Mr. and Mrs. Ashp and Spray from Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Knyvet. Spray from Sylvia, Ted, Hestia and Marga.
A special Memorial Service will be conducted by the Rev. Mr. Smith, next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at St. Michaels and All Angels Church.

CHORAL SOCIETY IS RE-ORGANIZED

The Strathmore Choral Society held a re-organization meeting on Friday evening, September 10th.
The following officers were elected: Pres., Mr. J. French; Vice Pres., Mrs. Fisher; Sec.-Treas., Mrs. Brown; Conductor, Mr. Lydall; Pianist, Mrs. Walker; Librarian, Mr. Berry, according to the report of the Society is to raise funds in aid of the Canadian Legion. Plans are under way for a concert to be held later in the fall. Practices are called for every Monday evening at 8 p.m. in the Memorial Hall and these practices promise to be profitable and enjoyable. Any one interested either in town or in the surrounding district is cordially invited to join.

Following the business of the evening a pleasant social hour was enjoyed.

NEW WHEAT MAY BE IMPROVEMENT

A new hard spring wheat which gives promise of being even better than either Marquis or Garnet is being tested at the Canadian government experimental farm. The name of this new variety, it was learned, is "Reward," which, according to tests made in recent years and still being carried on, will ripen ten days earlier than Marquis.
It is also believed "Reward" will have as good milling qualities and will give even heavier yields, because of the heavier seed. Measure bushels of "Reward," which have been grown in Ottawa, weigh as high as 60 lbs. Cerealsists believe that if successive tests continue up as well as those of recent years have done, the "Reward" variety will supersede Marquis, the wheat that for 15 years has won the world's wheat prize at the International Grain and Hay Show at Chicago, and even Garnet, a new town wheat, which also ripens ten days earlier than Marquis, but which does not mill as white.

CARD OF THANKS

Mrs. Meighen wishes to thank the many friends for the kind sympathy shown her in her recent bereavement, and for floral tributes.

U. F. A. Carry Eleven Alberta Constituencies

U. F. A. GROUP GAINS PAIR OF ALBERTA SEATS

Conservatives lost two seats in Tuesday's election, Calgary East and Edmonton East, the former going to Labor and the latter to the Liberals. At the same time, Liberals lost two seats, Wetaskwin and Athabasca to the U.F.A., and the Farmer group increased their former house membership from nine to eleven as a result.

The sixteen Alberta seats are now divided as follows:

U.F.A.	Liberals	Conservatives	Labor
11	3	1	1
Total	16

Members elected in the various ridings were:
Calgary—Robert Gardiner, U.F.A.; defeated C. H. Wade, Cons.; unchanged.
Athabasca—F. F. Keimer, U.F.A.; defeated C. W. Cross, Lab.; U.F.A. gain from Liberal.
Battle River—H. E. Spencer, U.F.A.; defeated J. W. G. Morrison, Cons.; unchanged.
Bow River—E. J. Garland, U.F.A.; defeated A. C. Scratch, Ind.-Cons.; unchanged.

who helped in the making and erection of the same, especially Messrs P. Messinger, A. Messinger and R. E. Sparks. A vote of thanks was passed accordingly. The next meeting will be held at Mrs. F. Messinger's home.

ROSEBUD

Rev. Halsewood and family have returned from their holidays and church services are again at the usual hour.
Mrs. Beatrice Gow's children left Wednesday for her old home, London, England. We are sorry to lose Mrs. Gow from our vicinity. She was an excellent music teacher, whose pupils have always passed their examinations with high marks, and it will be hard to find another teacher to take her place. Everybody comes back to Alberta sooner or later, so Mrs. Gow's friends live in hopes she will do the same.
A. Gow has gone to look after his number interests in the north and west.
A new school has been started in the Gov. district. There has not been a school for years, when badly needed. Lately the taxpayers got busy, with the result of a new school, with Miss Morton as teacher.
L. W. Constock was a recent visitor to Calgary, as were the Hyman boys.
L. Ryan has rented the Gov cottage in Rosebud.

CROP DAMAGE
Considerable damage to the crops in the district has been caused by the heavy rains of the past two weeks but it is hoped that with favorable weather from now until the harvest is completed, that it will turn out much better than many of the more pessimistic predict.

The standing grain if it escapes the frost, will grade much better than that in the stooks.

AMERICAN LEAGUE PLAYERS INSIST ON FULL STRUNG

Players in the American League are out for all the "dough" they can gather this year and as a result the league race promises to be a hectic one until near the finish, despite the fact that the New York Yankees are practically a cinch to win the pennant.

But there is a merry scramble for second, third and fourth place money, so merry that the clubs, on the insistence of their players, have demanded that the schedule be played out in full. As a result, this season will see the unusual spectacle of games postponed in the east being played out on the final trip of the Eastern clubs to the west. Ordinarily, when it is impossible to play off postponed games at the park where they are scheduled originally they are automatically wiped out. Not so this year.

With one end of the series assured in New York and the other in St. Louis, Pittsburgh or Cincinnati, the players have visions of a big world's series pot and the difference in the final standing may mean a difference of as much as $500 to each player. In the National League the fight is still for the big money with three clubs having a chance. The Chicago Cubs are battling to freeze out the New York Giants in the payoff. While all three leading clubs maintain practically an even pace, the opinion is growing that the Cardinals are better prepared for a driving finish than either Pittsburgh or Cincinnati. The former have many double-headers ahead of them with a winning pitching staff, while everyone wonders how the Reds stick where they do.

HERALD GOLF TOURNAMENT FRIDAY

CALGARY, Sept. 14.—With preparations well under way for The Herald final golf championship tournament opening at Calgary on Friday a great golfing classic that has stirred up interest throughout the province, is to be brought to a close.

The Herald competition is for country district golfers who are unable to participate in the major tournaments and for that reason lose a good deal of the sport of championship contests. They have settled their district championships by medal play, and on Friday they will open a three-day tournament in Calgary.

Thursday evening and Friday morning the golfers will arrive. They will start play Friday morning at the Country Club, with sixteen members participating. They are coming from all sections of the province and one contestant is from Piapot, Sask. The week will close with a dinner on the night of September 18, when the prizes will be presented.

Plenty of Golf

Besides the main event, a consolation competition will be carried through so that the visitors will be assured of plenty of golf during their stay in Calgary. They are being brought here as guests of The Herald, and while in the city they will take their lunch at the golf club.

Friday and Saturday evenings they will be theatre guests and the dinner will be the closing feature. A prize is offered for the tournament winner and the leader in the consolation event.

Fred J. Dunn will be the representative from Strathmore, and it is expected that he will make the best of them step lively. He is in fine fettle in both mind and limb, and his vocabulary is almost perfect.

WORLD'S BASEBALL SERIES TO OPEN ON OCTOBER 2

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 14.—The world's series this year will open on October 2 in the city of the American League pennant winning club, it was decided here Saturday by Baseball Commissioner K. M. Landis and representatives of the leading teams in the American and National Leagues. The second game will be played in the American League city. The third, fourth and fifth games will be played in the city of the pennant winning National League club.

In the event sixth and seventh games are necessary, they will be played in the American League city.

DEMPESEY WILL REFUSE TO GIVE WILLS A FIGHT

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J., Sept. 13.—Jack Dempsey never will give Harry Wills a chance to win the world's heavyweight championship or even make money in the ring at Dempsey's expense. The title-holder delivered himself of this declaration after his workout.

"I don't believe Wills or his manager, Paddy Mulins, deserve any further Wills a chance to win the world's heavyweight championship or even make money in the ring at Dempsey's expense. The title-holder delivered himself of this declaration after his workout."

"They have tried to stop my fight with Tunney. They had the fight thrown out of New York and now they are even trying to prevent it in Philadelphia."

NAMAKA, — hmb eff.

Mr. Behan and family, of Dalmat, have arrived and will reside in Namaka.

Sunday, the 26th will be rally day. A special program for the occasion. The Ladies Aid will meet this month, but will meet on the regular meeting day in October. Time and place will be announced later.

Mr. A. Mahaffy and Mr. H. G. Nolin addressed a meeting here in the interests of A. C. Seratch. Considering the state of the roads, there was a very good attendance. An attentive hearing was accorded the speakers, who put before the audience the issues of the present election in a clear and forcible manner.

tons of the packer. By this method we have the grain showing at from four to five days after seeding.

For spring cultivation I believe in harrowing at least twice. For this purpose we have used the Brandon long and light tooth weeder and there by secured a clean crop. Our yields last year ranged between 20 bushels and 25 bushels. Of course, a clean fallow during the preceding summer is necessary to successful spring harrowing.

Last fall we seeded too late for the furrow method and with the open winter the ridges wore down with the wind and we lost a large part of the crop and had to re-seed in spring wheat. But I am not discouraged in the least and will soon complete the seeding of 1,200 acres. Much of this is already up and making a splendid showing.

I believe that Winter Wheat is also lending itself to the use of the combined harvester better than the spring wheat, and if we can succeed with both the Fall Wheat and the combine, the attention of many from the Western States will be attracted to Southern Alberta.

I will be glad indeed if you find it possible to call at any time and especially next week, when we will be operating the combine and when most of our seeding will be through the ground.

Very truly yours,
C. S. Noble

 Manager Smith: "That's a razor-back hawg, sir."
 Tourist: "What's he rubbing himself with?"
 Manager Smith: "Just stropping himself, sir, just stropping himself."

When Harold Smith was overseas he ran across a dorky named Sambo, who had had several weeks' hard life on a French battlefield, and had been asked by an officer, "where are you from, Sambo?"
 "I'm from Alabama, boss," said Sambo, "and if I ever get back there soon, I'll never be from there no more, boss."

Chateau manager: "You are ill, aren't you?"
 Lady guest: "No, sir."
 Manager: "I am so sorry."

With heaps of pluck, and lots of luck. Together with reliable information; You may succeed in having a lucky day.

At Chateau Jockey meeting. But, there is one thing certain. With us fellows who go racing; You never can tell, till the numbers go up.

Whether St. Angelina is winning or not.

And she didn't.
 General Manager Smith, of the Chateau had nothing to do on election day, and so began reminiscing about the horse races at the Chateau Jockey Club, where he dropped all the money which he had saved during the summer months, when he was on the water wagon. He persisted in following his hunch to play St. Angelina, and the only time she was won when Smith played betwixt and who also followed St. Angelina's previous example, and ran positively last. Grogan says Smith played St. Angelina because that is the name of his Spokane girl with the curly hair; all his other Spokane girls are brunettes.

After trying to induce Grogan to come across with an advance on salary account on the October payroll, and being refused as then took up the soothing task of writing what he calls poetry.

The head Linotype operator labored with this awful stuff, and finally produced the above, and gave notice that he would quit his job before he would tackle any more of Smith's poetry, and the Cansland printer, who is convinced by this awful stuff, "editor could not be secured. It certainly is atrocious, and the only way that can be referred for publication is that that was very short during the early part of the week, owing to wretched conditions. The people of Cansland can do anything to him that they consider fit and proper."

SCHOOL COLUMN

The Executive of the Calgary Rural Teachers' Association met at the residence of Inspector Buchanan last Saturday morning. The purpose of the meeting was to arrange for the Fall convocation. Besides Mr. Buchanan, Inspector McGregor, of High River and Mr. Smith, the High School Inspector, were present. The convention will be held on October 21st and 22nd. A tentative program was drawn up. A feature of this year's convocation will be a section devoted entirely to H. School problems, over which the High School Inspector will preside. High School teachers from the Inspectorates served by Messrs. Buchanan, McGregor, Macdonald and Boyce will attend the meeting of this section. These convocations are always a source of inspiration to those attending. Even the most experienced teachers gain something from them. It is hoped that every teacher of the Calgary Rural Inspectorate will make arrangements to attend.

There are some schools that have not yet paid their entry fee to the School Past Association. It will facilitate the raising of prize money if secretaries of the school boards in question would forward a cheque at their earliest convenience.

In the dear Auld Lang Syne, for but strangers I'm meetin',
An' it's sair, sair I'm greetin' for friends far awa'.

O, was in my heart for a sight of the Hiellands,

ROCKYFORD

Mrs. Louisa Riley is at present at tending High School in Calgary.

Mrs. Marian Schlafer, at Tudor, has been spending several weeks in Calgary with her sister, Mrs. John Horne.

Miss Dorothy Henderson has left for Chicago, where she is to enter the North Western University.

Mrs. Tudor, who for the past two years has been staying with her daughter, Mrs. C. A. Brown, left on Sunday for a visit to Nebraska.

Mr. George Day was last week called to Calgary to visit his father, who is very near, very sick. We trust that by the time this appears he will be well
on the road to recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Brown are building a bungalow in Rockyford.

Several children from Tudor and district are attending High School at Rockyford.

The heavy rains of the last few days have made it very difficult to travel. We don't pretend to be road experts, but it would seem possible
that when the drizzling is next down it might be done the other way so as to throw the dirt to the outside. Already our roads have such a crown on them, that in wet weather it is almost impossible to keep Little on
of the ditch.

If people put fences across runs
allowances for their own convenience,
it would seem only an act of good manners to remove the obstruction
when it is no longer required, and let it fall into disrepair and become a danger to all who use the King's Highway. Several of these wire barricades have been placed across roads in the district lately by people who wish to use the roads as pasture.

September 14th election day, and the 12th duck shooting we didn't get much rest, as by the time the election returns were in it was time to report to our favourite slosh, and place the annual six shires in the hind end of our faithful hound for saving the lives of numerous wild fowl by warning them of our approach. Do you shoot, or do you take a dog with you?

WHEAT POOL SUIVING OVER NON-DELIVERY

The Alberta Co-operative Wheat
Producers, Ltd., otherwise the Wheat Pool, has entered action in the supreme court of Alberta, against Harry Hedberg, a farmer resident near Hardisty, Alberta, in which the plaintiff seeks to recover $1,000 as damages for breach of a contract entered into between the plaintiff and the defendant, on August 21, 1925.

By the terms of this agreement the defendant agreed to contract to sell to the plaintiff company for sale, all of the wheat produced or acquired by him
during the years of 1923-24-25-26 and
27. As it was held to be impracticable to ascertain the exact damages that would be suffered by the plaintiff company in any branch of the contract, it was agreed between the parties that the sum of 25 cents per bushel should be taken as liquidated damages.

The defendant having failed to con-
sign to the company his crop of wheat amounting by him in the fall of 1925, raised by him to 4,000 bushels, the plaintiff is suing for $1,000. Mr. Hankins and Hall are solicitors for the Wheat Pool, the plaintiffs.

CROP CONDITIONS

WINNIPEG, Sept. 14—Harvesting

has been suspended for some time
on account of heavy general rains
experienced in all parts of the west.
Reports the Canadian Pacific Agricultural Department. In some sections precipitation was so heavy that several days good drying weather will be necessary before grain in stacks is liquidated. Good condition to thresh, and ground is good enough to permit machines to operate. While operations have been to date, the unusual rainfall does not appear to have caused much damage by spoiling. A few instances have been reported, but loss is negligible. Everything, however, will depend on weather conditions from now on as to whether there will be any reduction in the crop yield from this cause. Feed crops and pastures have benefited, and it is unlikely that there will be any shortage of water feed in any part.
The livestock situation is satisfactory and noticeable feature is the fact
there will be any reduction in the sheep and, and inquiries from farmers intending to go into the sheep business are becoming more numerous.

HEARD ON THE STREET

HEARD ON STREET ———
An Irishman applied at the wharf for work as a stevedore. He was only four and a half feet in height, and the foreman was dubious.

"We're loading three-hundred pound snails into that boat," he said, "and a little chap like you couldn't handle them."

"Try me," said Pat.
The foreman put him to work.
Pat hustled the snails aboard all right. The cargo was nearly all stowed when the foreman heard a splash. He ran to the rail, and saw Pat struggling in the water.

"Throw me a rope!" he yelled as he went under.
He reappeared soon and again called loudly for a rope. Then he disappeared again. Once more he rose to the surface.

"If you don't throw me a rope," he spluttered, "I'm going to drop this snail!"

One of Sir Thomas Lipton's favorite stories concerns an old Scotchman, who went to a horse race for the first time and was induced to stake sixpence in the third race on a forty to one shot. By some miracle this horse won, and when the bookmaker handed the old man his winnings he could hardly believe his eyes.

"The ye mean to tell me I get all this for six shillings?" he exclaimed.
"You do," replied the bookmaker.
"Ma conscience," muttered the Scotchman, "Till now, mon, how long has this thing been going on?"

An Ontario lawyer entered his condemned client's cell. "Well," he said,
"good news at last!" "A reprieve?"
exclaimed the prisoner, eagerly.
"No, but your uncle has died, leaving you $500, and you can go to your father with the satisfying feeling that the noble efforts of your lawyer
of old will not go unrewarded."

Teacher: "Frank, did your father
write easy?"
Frank: "No, ma'am. He started it but mother had to do it all over again."

Bob Anderson wants to know why he shouldn't there be beauty parlors for men? Men need them more than women do.

Partner to Pete and Kurt: "No, I don't bear malice, I only hope that when you're chased by a pack of wolves you'll be driven by that horse
you sold me!"

Woman customer—I want a good
can opener.

Clerk—Lady, here's a can opener that cannot be beaten. It opens any can that can be opened with a can opener, and any can can be opened with this can opener that can be opened with any can opener. I'll get a can and show you that can—

Exit woman.

A man whose credit was at a low ebb called on Bill Tierney to try on a new suit he had ordered, and on doing so found that the cloth, fit—everything, in fact—was perfect. He turned to Tierney and said, in a pleased tone—

"The suit is fine—very creditable indeed."

"Oh, no," said Tierney. "Cash only."

Extract from evening paper: "A shilling was found in a berring caught by the south coast fishing fleet."

Next morning's paper: "The Scottish fishing fleet sailed for the south coast during the night."

"You have had your wife, have you not?" said Fred Nye.

"Tall? Why she's so tall that she has to stand on a chair to brush her teeth?"

"Well, of all the nerve," she said,
as she slapped his face. "Don't even try to kiss me again!"

"All right," replied Bobble meekly.
"If that's how you feel about it, get off my lap."

The head bell hop at the King Edward Hotel made a slight mistake and the boss was giving him a long trade
on his general infidelity.

"You're a fine nut, you are!" he howled. "Here I've taught you everything I know, and still you don't know anything!"

Wife: "It's raining cats and dogs.
We must lend Mrs. Blank an umbrella, or she will get drenched going home."

Hubbard: "My dear, it's impossible.
The only umbrella we've got has her husband's name engraved on it."

A New Jersey court has held that a man has a legal right to rule his home. One, says Fred Nye, Town Assessor, and he also has a legal right to fight a buzzard.

Landie: "Blandies would be all right
except for two things."
Spence Hughes: "And what are they?"
Landie: "Blondes and brunettes."

Pete Teller: "If I had a wife I would have a joint bank account."
Teddie Vendergrast: "That's a good idea. Have a lot of trouble, wouldn't it?"

"Oh, yes, all you would have to do would be to put the money in. She would draw it out."

Mistress: "Goodness, Mary, where is the telephone?"
Mary: Mrs. Blank sent over asking if she could use it, so I sent it across, but I had an awful job to get it off the wall."

Frank had been using an oblique colder for a fortnight. He had tried every known remedy without success,
when he met Louis.

"That's a nasty cold you have, Frank,"
said Louis. "You don't you take something for it?"

"I don't take anything!" yelled
the exasperated Frank. "How much will you give me?"

Married lady: "Ah, my husband has always been a lucky man. As a child he was thrown by a horse but wasn't injured. As a youth the responsible because him, but he wasn't drowned. As a young man he was caught in an Alpine avalanche but escaped unhurt."

Bachelor: "Tiersy, "And he has now been married twenty years and is still alive."

An Aberdeen woman who keeps a lodger went to hear a famous preacher.
The sermon, which was on the subject of charity, was so impressive that she mentally vowed never to turn a beggar away from her door
again.

She had not long to wait for an opportunity of practicing charity, for next day a beggar rang her bell and asked for a morsel of bread. She told him to wait a minute, ran quickly into the house and cut off a generous slice of bread—from the lodger's loaf.

Jimmie Swanson points out that an industrious gardener may be accused of hunting for fish worms, while a fishing devotee may be credited with being a hardworking gardener.

A Scotchman became engaged to a girl who got so fat that he wanted to break off the engagement. But the girl couldn't get the ring off, so he had to marry her.

Solicitor to witness at Calgary
Police Court:

"Are you trying to speak the truth?"
Witness: "Well, I am trying to keep up with you."

Wife at Calgary Divorce Court—
"I was only twenty when I met my husband; I was young and innocent."

The stout and selfish traveller muttered: "That stout and selfish Tony Grosvenor ought to have a handbag from the opposite seat. My—er—friend will be back presently," he added, in response to the other's lifetiff eyebrows.

Tony meanwhile stood near the car door. In a few minutes the train started. With a bound he was back in the car and before the other could lift an arm had flung the handbag on to the platform.

"How dare you do that?" demanded the stout traveller.

"Because your friend has lost his trunk, there's no need for him to lose his bag as well!" was Tony's reply.

She (anxious to impress): "I've just put my fur into cold storage."

He: "Cold storage? Ah, that's jolly good; never heard it called that before. My cuff links and watch are there, too."

At the Chinook race meeting a Glasgow sportsman was struck when won a bet on a five-to-one chance on a tip that he got from Jean Kimmet.

When the cashier handed him several five dollar notes, representing his stake and winnings, the sportsman blocked the line by stopping till he had counted the money and examined every note carefully.

"What's the matter?" asked the cashier, resentfully. "I paid 100 cents."

"No," replied the Greek, still scrip-tizing the notes. "I only wanted to make sure the one I gave you wasn't another 'em."

Peddler—"Any beer bottles,
m'am?"

NEW TELEPHONE

RATES EFFECTIVE

OCTOBER FIRST

The inevitable has happened in the matter of increased telephone rates, which will become effective on October 1st.

The numbers of the public Utilities Commission have listened to the arguments for and against an increase, and have decided in favor of the proposed increase without making a single reduction from the schedule presented.

The officials of the telephone system must have unsharpened their facts well, in order to secure this result, which was not obtained without meeting the keenest opposition.

It has been generally known for some time that a very serious condition was being created in connection with caring for the plant depreciation, and it will be a very satisfactory condition to know that with the increase in rates, which are not burdensome to anyone, that all these charges will be properly provided.

In the past a splendid service has been given, through the cooperation of a competent and courteous staff. Just think of the service you have been having for a trifling sum per month, which is being increased only fifty cents per month.

PENDING AT

HOME HELPS

TO MAKE MONEY

Whatever money you make spent at home helps to make your own and community better in every way.

Theoretically at least every sale makes a profit, which profit becomes available to make other purchases or goes into the bank and is available through banking channels for reinvestment.

The bankers may lend a portion to some one in business to help develop his business or make some improvement, or they may lend it to some client, who in turn will help some one to build a new home or improve the old one, or buy a new car, or some needed piece of machinery, put in a new lighting system or make the home more modern or beautify their place of residence, thereby adding to the general appearance of your town.

When you send your money away you are simply helping to build up the town in which you are not interested, and neither you nor any of your friends and neighbors receive now, or at any future time, any benefit.

Your money is a real builder either for your own town, or the other fellow's town. Take your choice, and don't forget that this same theory works just the same for the merchant, business or professional man, who ships a few dollars away because he thinks he is saving a few cents, when, as a matter of fact, he is simply helping to build up another competitor of the worst type, the unseen and unknown competitor.

Think it over Mr. Man when you are tempted to save a few nickels.

WILL THE

COMBINE SUPPLANT

THE BINDER?

That a number of farmers in Alberta are giving the harvester combine a test this year will be watched with a keen interest by those interested in economical harvesting.

Sufficient of these machines will be in use to allow for a fair conclusion in regard to their fitness in this section of the grain belt.

The conditions this season are most exacting, and certainly create severe tests.

The August rains produced considerable second growth, resulting in green kernels being present, making the combine harvesters.

It has been reported that wheat, in order for the combine to handle to the best advantage should contain less than fifteen percent moisture.

If the machine will handle tangled and lodged grain satisfactorily, there sure is a place for them, when it is remembered that each machine will perform the equal work of three binder men.

Those who have studied the practical side of the question, claim that a saving on wheat may be expected, amounting from twelve to fifteen cents per bushel.

This saving alone will be a very important factor in future wheat raising in addition to eliminating a large worry in the matter of securing efficient harvest and threshing labor.

HONEST MEN

FROM CENTRE

TO CIRCUMFERENCE

The following article appeared in the Granbrook Courier:

In summing up the wants of this Canada of ours, you will no doubt agree with us that the greatest want of this age is men—men who are not for sale. Men who are honest, sound, from centre to circumference, and true to the heart's core. Men who will condemn wrong in friend or foe, and in themselves as well, the latter more especially. Men who will stand for right though the heavens totter and the earth reels. Men who can and will tell the truth and look the world and the devil in the eye. Men who have courage without whistling for it and joy without shouting to bring it. Men who know their duty and fill it. Men who are willing to earn what they eat and pay for it, and perform the duty they are paid to perform—politically and otherwise.

After reading what the politicians have been saying about each other during the past few weeks, if the same be all true, we are wondering where they will get 246 of them to man the next House of Commons.

Noble Tells of His Experience With Winter Wheat

C. S. Noble, Famous Farmer of Noble, Ford, Describes His Experience With Fall Wheat

It has been the opinion of many of the earliest of Alberta's settlers that Winter Wheat cannot be successfully grown in this province, but during the past few years this variety of grain has been receiving more and more attention. It is realized that the successful growth of Winter Wheat would largely overcome the disadvantage of the Spring variety, which frequently suffers from drought and hot winds at the most critical period of its existence. As a consequence, any trials of the new varieties of Winter Wheat should be of interest to every farmer, and when a farmer such as C. S. Noble gives his opinion that opinion should carry weight.

It need not be explained to many that Mr. Noble is one of Western Canada's greatest wheat farmers. His name is known to one of the show places of the province, and the province has frequently read accounts of his great wheat producing plant in Southern Alberta.

Mr. Hutchings interested

When Mr. J. R. Hutchings, of the Great West Saddlery, Calgary, became interested in the production of Winter Wheat, he determined to obtain all possible information from those who had experience with this grain. On writing to Mr. Noble, who is growing the Winter variety, Mr. Hutchings received a letter in reply, which was so full of information on the topic that he has

Mr. R. J. Hutchings,

Calgary, Alberta.

Dear Mr. Hutchings:—

It is a pleasure for me to comply with your request and write you of our late experience with Winter Wheat.

Winter Wheat raising in this section was given up some years ago because of frequent winter killing and resultant poor stands and weeds. But with the introduction of new Winter Hardy Varieties a revival of earlier practice has begun.

Five years ago we secured from the McDonald College in Quebec, one bushel of their improved M22 Knox sown Winter Wheat. This variety had already promise of being very winter hardy and our experience with it to date has been entirely satisfactory in this respect.

Prominent among the advantages to be derived from the raising of Winter Wheat are:

1. A heavier yield, which our Agricultural Experiment records show to be some three bushels per acre above that of Spring Wheat.
2. A means of preventing soil drifting by furnishing a cover during the windy months of the year, and a better division and tining of farm work, allowing summer fallow to begin much earlier in the year.

It is possible when the crop is needed in the Spring.

The last mentioned advantage is of prime importance because it provides for almost perfect weed control, which in turn means the highest degree of moisture conservation. And since an abundant moisture content insures a vigorous growth, which in turn prevents soil drifting, it will be seen that Winter Wheat raising constitutes a complete cycle, which it is of the highest importance to keep unbroken. Thus it may be noted that many failures and seed-failures are the result of late summer fallowing followed by consequent heavy seed growth, loss of moisture, and a slowly Fall growth of Wheat. These dele-able results are often due to the false hope that a late plowing will prevent soil drifting. The aim should be instead to conserve moisture regardless of the danger of drifting. Indeed, this is the only successful crop method of preventing soil drifting, for no matter what the method of summer fallow employed, soil will surely drift badly throughout the Fall, Winter and Spring months unless covered by some kind of vegetation.

Regarding methods and practice, I submit the following: I think as a rule the best yield may be expected when the seedling is done from the 15th of August to the 1st of September, but where—as here—there is danger of drifting at an earlier date seedling during the first half of August is safer.

Our experimental farms both here and in the Northern States seem to get best results with a bushel seed per acre, but we have preferred to seed from 20lbs. to 40lbs. only in the hope that the lighter seedling will result in better drought resistance during the summer. To this we add 20 per cent in bulk of seed oats to insure an ample cover for the Fall.

The furrow method of seedling is receiving a great deal of attention, especially in Montana, where they are eager to again get into Winter Wheat. They use both factory and home-made furrow openers, seeding four or five inches deep in the furrows, which are twelve inches apart, leaving the seed covered with about 2 inches of earth. These furrows prevent the seed being blown out and also catch some snow. Also, when Spring thawing and freezing occurs, the resultant cracking and the surface takes place in the ridges leaving the Wheat roots undisturbed in the furrows.

To assure furrow opening we have welded wings on the sides of each hoe of the ordinary hoe drill about two inches from the point of the hoe. This results in furrows as wide and ridges as high as is possible with our 12 inch spacing. Then behind the drill we draw a two-section packer so constructed as to press the seed down firmly in each furrow. It is home made of 18 inch disc blades set in pairs 1 inch apart as the time, the cavity thus formed by each pair being filled with concrete, the pairs being spaced of (Continued on another page)

Slats' Diary

Friday—Vivie Boone got married to a man last week and today when was asking her how count like to be pick
such a fellow as he was
she said the reason why
she chose him was because she all ways loved him and he was
and kind to Dan animals.

Saturday—We had a lot of excitement at the house this evening. Pa
came home with a cup
black eyes and a swell jaw. The way it can happen Mr. Gil
was a telling us
later. It seems that a man by the name of Tierney went up to pa and said: Do you belong to the Irish race pa replied and said: No Sir I belong to the Yuman race and then it happened. Well pa all ways has to have his little joke.

Sunday—Alice has been spending a visit with her folks in the country,
and when she got there her pa met her at the door and told her she had a new baby sister, Aggie rise away ran to the house to tell her ma all about it but sum one had been there telling her mother all ready new all about it.

Monday—Ma was not feeling so well
today and pa went and got her sum posidings at the Retail drug store and after she had out it she talked to her son all the time. When pa was a telling Mr. Gilman about it he said pa never saw her for the present and then he said he would get sum from Ted if it costed a Bill.

Tuesday—Gees Doves is a
going to leave her husband for good and she told me that last Wednesday
he trumped her and she and then the very next mite he bragged home
and told her for supper and it was the cook
and it.

Wednesday—Went to a party tonite
and we danced a hole and I danced with Mabel sum body from Rocky ford. She is a mitey good dancer
but it gets awfully lonesome dancing with her because she holds you off at arm length. And her arms is awfully long.

Thursday—Ant Emmy and her cur tin from in Shawe went to Calgary to take in a show and had a grade six
